

NH Psychological Association Continuing Education Program

Psychopharmacology: Past, Present and Future

Presenter: John Miller, MD

May 3, 2014

Analysis of Evaluations from Workshop Participants:

All ratings are on a scale of 1-5:

5=Excellent; 4=Good; 3=Satisfactory; 2=Fair; 1=Poor

Average Response for Each Question:

LEARNING OBJECTIVES	AUDIENCE RATING
Critique the history of drug development in psychiatry, and the role of serendipity as well as solid basic scientific contributions.	4.9
Assess the molecular diversity of drug mechanisms of action in the human brain, and the basic biochemical processes involved.	4.9
Discuss the many diverse and genetically polymorphic processes that will ultimately determine the serum concentration of a medication at the target receptor/enzyme/transporter in the brain.	4.8
List the current portfolio of psychotropic medications that are used in the treatment of Depression, Bipolar Disorder and Psychotic Disorders.	4.9
Describe the limitations of our current pharmacological portfolio, and become familiar with some of the novel agents in the pharmaceutical pipeline that may provide valuable novel mechanisms of action in the future.	4.8

CONTENT	AUDIENCE RATING
Consistent with stated objectives	4.9
Handout materials facilitated learning/useful resource	4.9
Personal/professional objectives were met	4.9
Overall workshop rating	4.8
How much did you learn as a result of this CE program?	4.5

PRESENTER	AUDIENCE RATING
Knowledgeable in Content Area	5
Presentation of Material	5
Overall rating of presenter	5
Use of Audio-Visual (if applicable)	4.9

General Comments about Workshop:

This was excellent.

Excellent! Every mental health worker should attend this lecture.

Excellent speaker!

Especially appreciated the informed use of polypharm.

Great presenter!

Total number of attendees: 17